Born: 1981 Sinaloa, Mexico

Currently living in San Diego, CA

I grew up in Ensenada, Mexico. This is where I embraced a love for culture and the fine arts, especially painting. My influences come from various international teachers, as well as growth within various cultures.

I took up painting in 2011. My passion is sketching and painting. I use acrylics and charcoals to create vivid and memorable images on canvas, paper and wood. My work is a journey, which enables me to connect with my inner self.

I studied at:

CRIA (Centro de Residencias e Investigación Artística). Ensenada, Mexico.

Maestro Hector Herrera. 2011-2012.

Proarte. (Programa de Arte Profesional). Ensenada, Mexico.

Maestro Alfredo Zavala. 2012-2015.

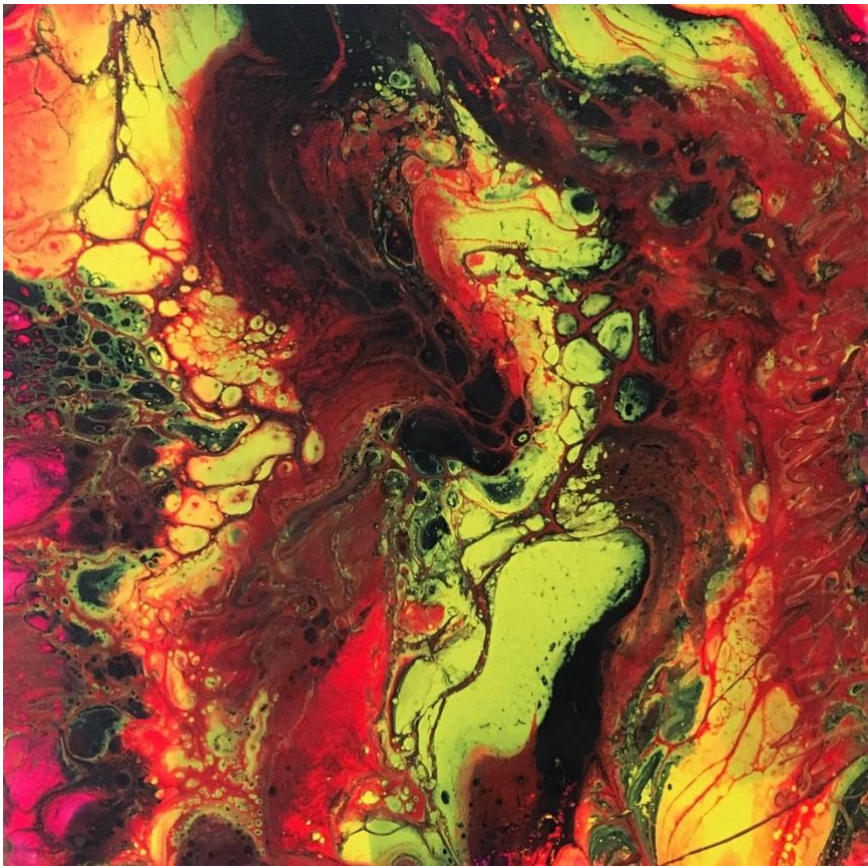

Curso de dibujo Mexico city.2016-2017.

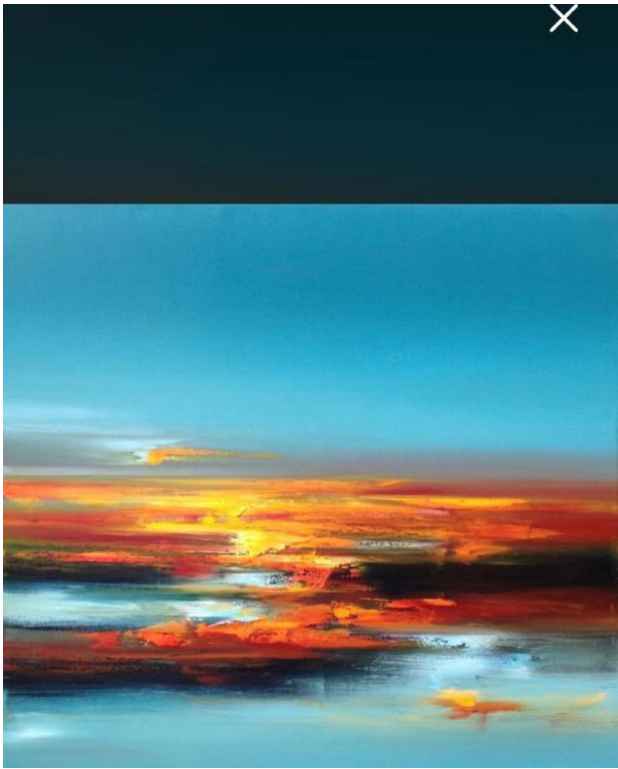

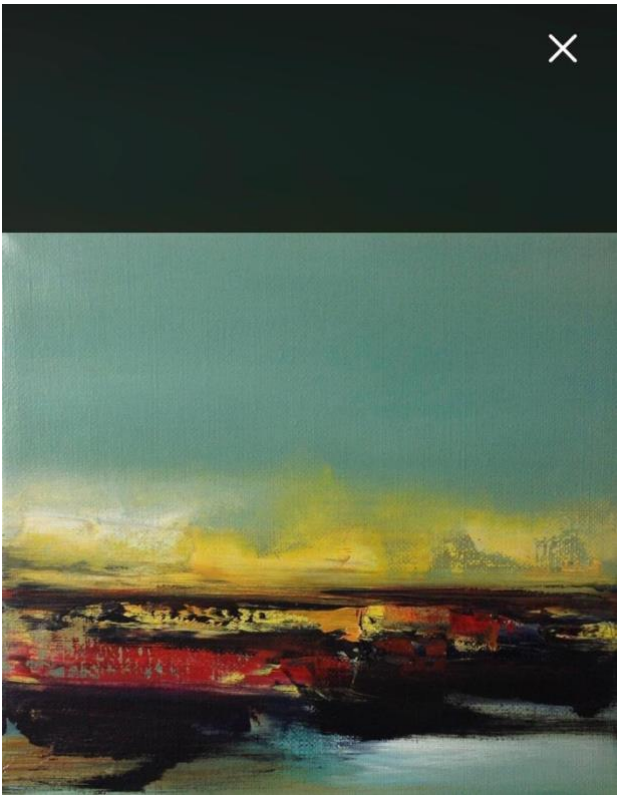

Curso Madrid Spain .2018-2019.

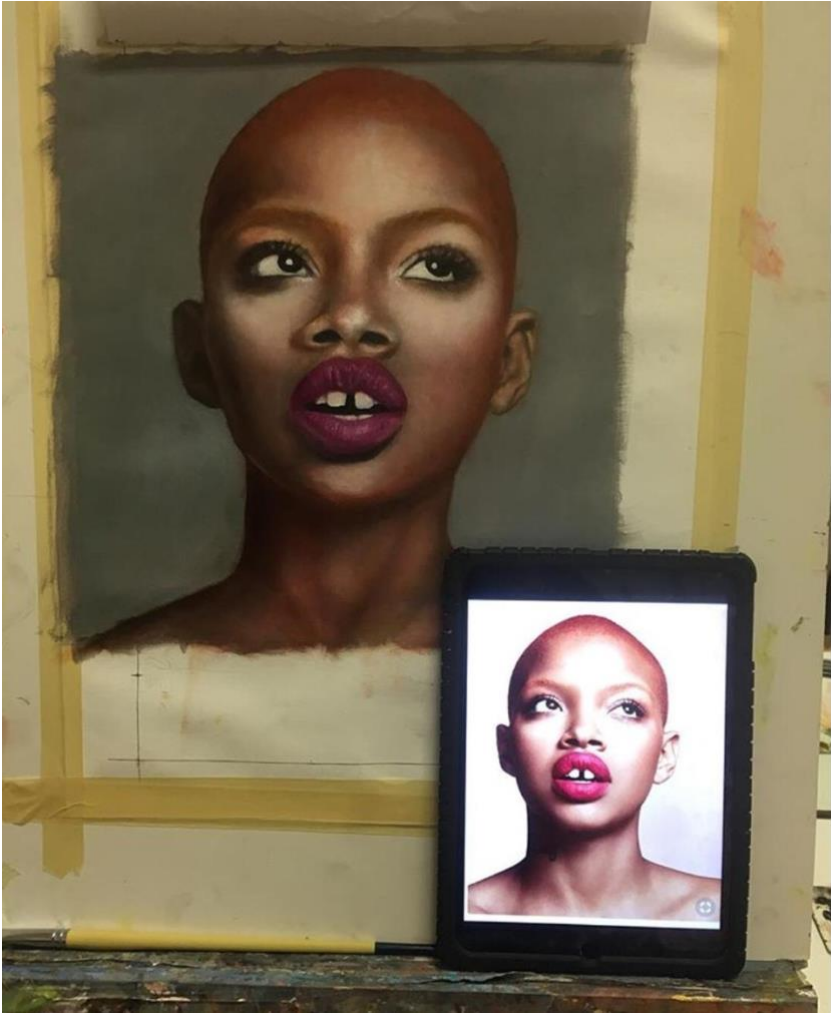

I have participated in various individual and collective art galleries and exhibitions in Mexico, as well as in the United States such as the Latin American Art Festival in 2016 and 2017 (San Diego, CA), Little Italy Art Walk in 2016 and 2017 (San Diego, CA).

Madrid Spain (4 elements).

I have the best friends in the world! Came home from an amazing dinner with my Leo friends to find this stunning woman in my living room. Thank you Stephanie Martinez! You are so cleverly thoughtful! You knew I had fallen in love with this piece when we were adventuring in TJ. <3
